TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Re: Tao Li

Credentials of academic standing were submitted to the Comparative Education Service for interpretation and appraisal.

According to the graduation certificate, the academic transcript, the notarial certificate and the corresponding English translations, the above-mentioned person registered for a program of studies in the Department of Mathematics at the East China Normal University, Shanghai, People's Republic of China. This University is one of the most prestigious institutions of higher learning in China.

Degree or Diploma obtained: Bachelor of Science, specializing in Applied Mathematics, in 1991.

We consider Tao Li's degree to be equivalent in level to a four-year Bachelor's degree, specializing in Applied Mathematics, from a Canadian university.

This assessment is for general and employment purposes only, and it does not constitute an offer of admission to a university. In addition, this letter does not commit any professional organization to accept our assessment in lieu of its own established classification requirements.
